Wm. Thompson, breach of peace, fined $10 and costs.

Diphtheria Remedy.

While there is so much talk in and around the city about the prevalence of that much dreaded disease, diphtheria, it would probably not be out of place to suggest a trial of the following recipe which we are informed is a never failing remedy, though very simple. "Make a strong solution of pure apple vinegar and lime and pour the throat frequently, drinking as freely of the preparation as possible in the mean time." It is said to be a sure cure when the directions are faithfully carried out.

CREAM OF NEWS.

THEIR LAST SERMONS.

Rev. J. W. Crawford, who has served the First Presbyterian Church of this city for the past eighteen months, will preach his last sermon next Sunday morning and evening. Mr. Crawford has accepted a call from the Presbyterian Church of Ellsworth, Kansas, and will leave with his family for that place the first of next week. Mr. Crawford, who served the church here as "stated supply," was called to the pastorate last May and the call was put in his hands by the Presbytery for acceptance or rejection, and the congregation was greatly disappointed to learn last week that the call had been declined. Mr. Crawford's daughter's health has greatly declined since she left her Western home and came to Hopkinsville and Mr. Crawford's failure to accept the call was doubtless prompted by a determination to try another climate. Mr. Crawford during his stay in our city won hosts of friends and impressed all who heard his preaching as being an earnest minister, a true Christian and a learned man. He did excellent work for his church, there having been more additions during his time than under that of any other minister of years. May health and prosperity attend himself and family.
Rev. John O. Rust, as previously announced, will preach his last sermon at the Baptist Church next Sunday morning and evening. Mr. Rust will resume his studies at the Baptist Theological Seminary at Louisville.
Rev. R. W. Clellan, pastor of the Northern Presbyterian Church at Owensboro, and who is well known in this city, will preach his farewell sermon next Sunday. Dr. Clellan has accepted the call of a church in California.

A Fugitive Captured.

A man named Smith, who is wanted for murder in Arkansas, was run down and captured last Tuesday, near Big Rock, Tenn., by the detectives who were hunting Brame. Our informant has it that the blood hounds "struck" his trail and following it rapidly upon "cornered" him in a small cabin. Command was given to open the door, when the detectives surprised Smith, instead of Brame, made his appearance, and without being questioned confessed to having recently murdered a man in Arkansas. He was terribly frightened, and was taken to Dover for safe keeping. The Arkansas authorities have been notified of the arrest.

A Fearful Fall.

Mr. Gilliam Ewell, a thrifty farmer, living near Lafayette, fell from the front porch of the Main street warehouse to the cellar floor below, a distance of twelve feet, Tuesday at noon, sustaining injuries that were at first thought to be fatal. Three ribs were found to be broken, the back of his head badly cut, and his body severely bruised. It is now thought that he will recover. Mr. Ewell is well advanced in years, and has several grown children; one of his sons, has been with him constantly since the accident occurred.

Tobacco Cutting.

There has been but little frost in this section as yet, but the very cool weather of the past week has had a tendency to stir up the farmers and it is estimated that 90 per cent. at least of the tobacco crop has been cut and housed. Some farmers claim that the quality is good while others say it is the most inferior raised for years, being thin, light, worm-eaten and trashy. Until the crop, which is much smaller than for years past, is all housed, an accurate report, or estimate, can not be made.

Held up by Robbers.

R. B. Hale, traveling salesman for the Spencer Medicine Co., Greenville, Tenn., was held up by two men, one a white man and the other colored, about five miles east of the city, on the Fairview pike, about 12 o'clock yesterday and relieved of $22 in cash. After obtaining the money Hale was told to go. He came to this city at once and reported the facts to the police and a search is being made for the robbers.

Self Destruction.

Jack Quarles, a prominent colored man, living near Garrettsburg, committed suicide Monday. A pistol was the weapon used for ending his days so suddenly. He was about 45 years old and leaves a family. His friends can assign no cause for such a rash act.

Broke His Arm.

Preston Thomas, son of Dr. J. P. Thomas, of Elmo, broke his left arm at Russellville, on the night of the 24th. Dr. Thomas was telegraphed and went up after him Wednesday, returning yesterday.

Colored M. E. Conference.

The twenty-first Conference of the colored Methodist Episcopal church assembled in the colored Methodist church of this city Wednesday morning. Over seventy delegates, lay and clerical, are in attendance. The distinguished and eloquent Bishop W. H. Miles, presides over its sessions. A. C. Banks of this city was chosen Reporter and Rev. D. A. Walker and S. C. Wallace Secretaries. The delegates are a remarkably intelligent and dignified body of ministers.

To eradicate the poison which produces fever and ague, take Ayer's Malaria Cure. It cures without having any injurious effect upon the system, and is the only medicine in existence which may be considered an absolute antidote for malaria.

HERE AND THERE.

Mrs. C. G. Lyne is quite sick.
Next Monday will be county court day.

Our merchants are expecting a large fall trade.
A little child of Robert West, at Guthrie, has diphtheria.

Hopkinsville now has three building and loan associations.

Robt. M. Woodruff, livery and sale stable, Frits' stand. Telephone 144.

Boy goods of 5—McGhee Bros.—5 Clarksville, Tenn., and save money.

Several of our people attended the Booth-Barrett performances in Louisville this week.

Since Mr. James Howe has taken charge of the town clock it has kept excellent time.

Frank Glone, a former L. & N. freight conductor, is now conducting the Accommodation train.

It is only a short time until the fall, and the directors expect to make it the most successful yet held.

Master Arthur Brown, son of Col. M. D. Brown, is quite sick with an aggravated case of sore throat.

Parker McComb, col., through his attorneys, Messrs. Forgy & Bell, has entered a motion for a new trial.

Sells Bros. circus will give two performances at Clarksville to-day, and a large patronage is promised it.

Penny Turner has received and put in place his new telephone switch-board and it is now in working order.

Mr. Morris Cohen has rented and moved into one of Mr. J. M. Starling's brick cottages on North Main street.

Mr. R. L. Boulware, after an illness of several weeks, is again able to take his place behind the counters of Bassett & Co.

The Pleasure Club will be reorganized in a few days. Two meetings per month, instead of one, will then be held.

There will be singing at Shiloh M. E. Church, Sunday morning, Sept. 29th, at 9:30 o'clock. A competent organist will be present.

We want two well preserved copies of the KENTUCKIAN for each of the dates of Feb. 12 and July 16, 1889. Will pay well for them.

Mr. Thos. W. Long, Secretary of the Hopkinsville Building & Loan Association, will send out his semi-annual exhibit the first of the month.

The doctors report a great deal of sickness in the way of malarial fever and chills. During the week, quinine could be obtained at but two drug stores in the city.

The handsome Swiss cottages being built for Mr. John C. Latham on Campbell street will soon be ready for occupancy, and the rentals, we understand, will pay 10 per cent. on the cost of erection.

Business men, look at the crowded condition of our advertising columns. If you want to "keep up with the procession" and prosper, let the people know who you are and what you have for sale—advertise.

Rev. H. A. McDonald, who has been quite indisposed for several weeks, we are glad to be able to announce, is up again, and will resume his duties as pastor of the Christian church.

Mrs. Vickers' concert at the Opera House next Thursday night, will no doubt be well patronized. The programme is a good one, and all who attend will not regret it. Some of the best talent in the city will take part.

There is much complaint among the business men on Seventh street about the "hog wallow" in front of their business houses and the proper authorities have been notified. It remains to be seen what will be done about the matter.

A thief prized open Calvin G. Layne's dwelling house door a few days ago, while Mr. Layne and family were absent, and secured about 40 pounds of granulated sugar. Nothing else was missed from the premises, and no clue was left by the thief as to his identity.

Squirrels are reported more plentiful than for several seasons past. In some parts of North Christian they are in such large numbers that they attack corn fields and destroy large quantities of the growing crop before their depredations are discovered, when they are either killed, crippled or put to flight.

The store houses of M. Frankel's Sons, Ike Lipstine, Ben Rosenbaum, Morris Cohen, Joe. Moayan, M. Solomon & Co., Kraver & Harris, and Mrs. Carrie Hart were closed from 6 p. m. Wednesday to 5 p. m. yesterday, the occasion being the incoming of the Jewish New Year.

Jones & Banks, the first class barbers of Seventh Street, are still holding their liberal share of the public patronage. They are skilled barbers themselves and employ none but the best men to assist them in carrying on a successful business. Everything is kept neat, clean and fresh as a new pin, and their chairs are the most comfortable, and of the most approved style, making it a pleasure for one to call in and get a nice hair cut, shave, shampoo, or shine at any time. The boys do not forget them and the old men cannot forget them, hence their solid patronage continues. Remember the old stand, Seventh street, south side, between Main and Virginia.

Among the enterprising and pushing merchants of our city is the well known dry goods man, Ike Lipstine, who has just received and put in place his large stock of dry goods, clothing, notions, gent's furnishings, boots, shoes, hats, caps, etc., bought at prices to suit one and all. His stock is complete throughout and he is offering bargains already, that are surprising the people and largely increasing his trade. Ike buys his goods for cash, catching all the bargains afloat and gives his patrons all the benefits of his excellent judgment. When in the city do not fail to drop in and see him and he will prove to you all his statements demand.
